TAKE ACTION

Eritrea today is like one giant prison where hope has disappeared and where the majority of people are denied simple freedoms, basic human dignity and human rights.

Since 2002 the repressive regime has closed all evangelical and Pentecostal churches, and has imprisoned thousands of believers.

Now we are calling for the urgent release of all Christian prisoners of faith in Eritrea, including the 173 who have been detained in appalling conditions for more than 10 years.

You can help by signing the attached card and posting it to the Eritrean Embassy in London, and by promising your prayer support:

I pledge to pray regularly during the next 173 days for the release of the 173 persecuted Christians who are currently enduring long-term imprisonment without trial in Eritrea.
